What is EChO?

Our EChO initiative is a targeted approach within Goodstart's Social Inclusion Strategy that builds on our universally available early learning and care programs. The approach uses an Enhanced Service Delivery Model to provide wrap around intensive and sustainable resources to Goodstart Early Learning centres located in communities where children are more vulnerable to poor outcomes.

You'll help achieve this by

Holding a Certificate III or Diploma in Early Childhood (ACECQA recognised qualification)

Displaying a Strong knowledge of the Early Years Learning Framework and National Quality Standards

Demonstrating exceptional knowledge of safety and wellbeing

Being a passionate Educator who is driven by a desire to provide quality learning experiences

What Goodstart can offer you

Job security and stability

Professional development and training

Competitive above award rates

Opportunity to purchase additional annual leave

Childcare discounts (from 15 - 30%)

If you have strong knowledge of the Early Years Learning Framework and National Quality Standards, plus hold a Diploma in Early Childhood (ACECQA approved equivalent), then we want to meet you!
